

Third Party Fundraising Handbook

So, you've decided to host a fundraising event... Thank you!

Your involvement helps improve the lives of surrendered, mistreated and neglected pets in London & Middlesex County.

Your support makes a difference:

Thanks to amazing supporters like you, London Humane Society is able to provide medical care and shelter to thousands of pets in London & Middlesex County, every year. Through third party events such as golf tournaments, bake sales and auctions, donors and volunteers like you are positively impacting the lives of local animals in need.

We are so grateful to the many groups and individuals who organize community fundraising events to help support London Humane Society.

No matter how large or small, these initiatives are invaluable to the overall fundraising of our shelter.

Enclosed you will find some guidelines to help manage your event.

3rd Party Event Policy/Guidelines:

We know there is a lot of time and effort that goes into fundraising and we appreciate your energy and hard work!

Below are some guidelines to help make your fundraiser run smoothly:

- The organizer agrees to handle all monetary transactions for the fundraising event.
- Cheques for sponsorship to be used to cover expenses should be made payable to your event or organizing committee.
- Promotional material must state “In support of London Humane Society” and be approved by London Humane Society prior to distribution.
- In an effort to maximize your donation, the event organizer is responsible for all aspects of the initiative including volunteers, advertising, ticket sales, sponsorship and all expenses incurred.
- If the support of LHS staff, volunteers or other support is needed, the organizer will contact the Marketing & Events Coordinator with ample notice. Support will be given on the basis of availability and is not guaranteed with the signing of the Event Agreement.
- If you are submitting funding requests where you must apply on behalf of London Humane Society and use its charitable registration number, these must be reviewed with the Marketing & Events Coordinator prior to the application.
- Unless otherwise agreed upon, event insurance, licenses, security deposits and any other legal or contractual requirements are the sole responsibility of the event organizer. London Humane Society cannot assume any liability for the event.
